Zenetti

This Australian label began over 15 years ago, with the belief that the hallmark of a true man is one who knows how to wear a suit, and make a lasting impression. The knowledge that it takes just one glance for someone to evaluate you is the reason Zenetti began their pursuit to deliver stylish and accessible menswear for any formal or special occasion. Today, more than ever, from head to toe Zenetti continues to detail the finer points that make all the difference.

SPECIAL OCCASION SUITING

AUSTRALIAN DESIGNED

spe-cial

oc-ca-sion

*n. An event or happening; the time at which an event occurs. A significant event. A favourable or appropriate time or juncture; an opportunity. Something that provides a reason or justification; a ground. A need created by a particular circumstance: A large or important social gathering. Personal requirements or necessities.

Our suit components and details are thoughtfully selected for their quality and performance. We believe that the man who understands the key elements of a Zenetti suit will have greater appreciation of its incomparable value. Please enjoy some of the following highlights of the 2011 Special Occasion Collection.

Zenetti men – confident, sexy, no matter what the occasion.

Pocket Hanks

Try to add a 'little' style to your next occasion. The pocket hank is the most overlooked accessory and often marks the difference between a nice look and a perfect look! It is not meant to be a flower substitute, so avoid scrunching it, and instead quarter the fabric to show just a sliver from your chest pocket. All Zenetti silk ties come with matching hanks.

The Dinner Suit

The dinner suit is probably the sexiest, most manly suit you will ever wear! While some call it a dinner suit, others prefer calling it a tuxedo. Either way, a black tie suit traditionally has a satin trim lapel on the jacket. Zenetti defines formalwear; choose from a variety of styles in the 2011 range.

Bow Ties

There is something about ties that make men feel confident and powerful – even more when they try the far more interesting counterpart, the bow tie. Be careful when styling yourself in a bow tie – stick with solid colours (orange rust colors are in this season) or textured patterns such as houndstooth.
